

Family Talk – Oneness

READ TOGETHER

Acts 4:32–5:16

1. What does it look like when believers are united in heart and mind?
2. How might God be leading you to use your resources to bless others?
3. What lesson can we learn from Ananais and Sapphira?

LIVE IT

This passage shows the early church selflessly caring for one another. It's easy for us to focus on taking care of ourselves. You even hear the expression look out for number one. But as Christ-followers, we're called to think of others before ourselves.

How has God blessed you? Have each member of your family name a few ways God has blessed them. Now think about how you can take those blessings and be a blessing to others. Name a specific person or organization who you'll seek to bless in the name of Jesus this week.

You can also use this statement:

One step I will take to share what I have is _____.

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

Thank You for every blessing in my life. Help me remember that I'm called to be a blessing to others, rather than keeping blessings to myself. Guide me to advance Your Kingdom through kindness and generosity.

In Jesus name,

Amen
