Matthew 22:34-40

1. Why do you think the commandments love God and love people are the most important according to Jesus?
2. What do these commandments teach us about marriage?

We serve an awesome God who loves us for who we are no matter what! He loves us when we're doing well and enjoys blessing us. He also loves us when we're doing things we know we shouldn't do, and He disciplines us because He knows how selfish that behavior can be.

God made friendships and marriage to teach us how to love each other better. The more we're around someone else, the more we have to accept that person for who they are. Sometimes that's really easy to do, but other times it can be hard. Thankfully, if we're obeying God and learning how to love Him more, He teaches us how to love other people the way we should.

LEAN ON GOD

Thank You for being the example of what love is and for teaching us how to love others. Thank You for making friends and marriage. Please teach us more about who we are and who You want us to be. Thank You for loving us and for giving us good gifts like friends and marriage.

Amen
