Daniel 11:36, 12:1–3

1. Why do you think the Bible tells us how things will be in the future?
2. We know the world is broken, so what are ways we can practice trusting God?

LIVE IT

One day there will be someone who will do terrible things and will show hatred toward God and Christians. Things may appear hopeless, but we can always remember that God is in control, and He's already won this war.

No matter what happens to us, if we know God we're safe. Bad things will still happen, but He promises to be with us every step of the way. These situations can't separate us from Him. No matter how hard things get, we know that we can find our peace in Him.

LEAN ON GOD

Dear God,

Thank You for being bigger than our challenges. We experience bad stuff, and we know from Your Word that things will get worse some day, but You're in control. Thank You for being a God who is powerful and trustworthy. Help us to trust You with everything.

Amen.
